Engine & Performance

Explore your daily drive behind the wheel of the powerful 2022 Ford F-150, available with six different heart-thumping engine options. Several engines have EcoBoost® technology, which gives you maximum performance capabilities with efficiency you'll appreciate. Impressively, when equipped with the 3.5L EcoBoost V6 engine, the Ford F-150 can tow up to 14,000 pounds. Plus, you can opt for a fully hybrid engine to save on overall fuel costs and feel good about doing so.

Looking for adventure? The 2022 Ford F-150 Raptor® can barrel through the toughest terrain like a piece of cake. It's equipped with five-link suspension with extra-long trailering arms to provide better capability and comfortable driving when off-roading, as well FOX Racing Shox® sport-tuned shock absorbers to help your Raptor react quickly while traversing rough trails.

Another off-road option is the 2022 Ford F-150 Tremor®, a ground-shattering performance trim package that can handle nearly anything you put it through. It's equipped with off-road shocks, the SelectShift® automatic transmission with progressive range select, and many other unique capabilities.
